The techniques and facilities to ensure safety are not perfect.

Climbers should be aware of the risks and be in control of themselves. Climbing cannot be made safe for children.

Climbers should be fully aware of this before climbing.

Your own actions can put other climbers in serious danger.

Climbers are expected to act with due regard not only for their own safety, but also for the safety of those around them.

All events, however, have the potential to result in death.

- Failure to land at the time of the crash and at the time of the jump.
- Contact with persons below at the time of the crash and when jumping off.
- Contact with others on the route (in the walls).
- Accidents due to rotation or breakage of the hold. (*Note 1)
- Accidents and disabilities due to overuse of the body while climbing.

*Note 1: Although we take every precaution to prevent rotational breakage through periodic checks, there is a possibility that the anti-turn treatment or holds may break due to impact while climbing. Knowledge and understanding of these possibilities will make it easier to respond to unexpected situations.

-UN ROCHER- Facility Usage Precautions

· This facility is dedicated to bouldering. Bouldering is a branch of climbing in which climbers jump down without ropes (usually 1-5 meters). The facility has mats for landing, but these are intended to soften the impact of landing and are not designed for all types of crashes. When landing, always check to make sure there is no one below you and land in a safe position with your feet first. Always be aware of your surroundings, be careful not to make contact with others, and try to avoid accidents by giving way to other users.

· Please cut fingernails and toenails short. Fake nails are not permitted. All jewelry must be removed and long hair must be pulled back. Clothing should be appropriate for climbing. Please remove all contents from your pockets. As a general rule, no hooded jackets, skirts, pants with spread hems, or clothing with strings (except for waist belt strings) may be worn (elementary school students are not allowed to wear them!) to avoid the possibility of accidents. ). If you have no choice but to wear such clothing, please do so with extreme caution and at your own risk.

- Climbers must wear climbing shoes when climbing. No socks or bare feet are allowed.
- Please do not jump and play on the mat area as it is very dangerous.
- Alcohol, dangerous drugs, etc. are strictly prohibited.
- Please do not bring any tools other than those used for climbing into the climbing area (mat area). Chalk bags, brushes, pointers, etc. are extremely dangerous and should not be placed near the landing or crash points.
- When attempting a route, carefully observe not only the route you are attempting, but also which routes other climbers are attempting, and try to avoid contact during the route in advance.
- When waiting or taking a break, please get off the mat area and go to the waiting area.
- Please eat and drink in the cafe area. You can drink water in the waiting area, but please use plastic bottles or water bottles with lids. Please use plastic bottles or water bottles with lids. Please be sure not to forget to close the lid.
